After graduating from Queen’s University, Dr. Bray spent six months serving with the Confederate army in Richmond, Virginia, during the American Civil War. He then practised in Chatham, Ont., from 1865 until 1907, when he was appointed registrar of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. He held that post until shortly before his death in 1916.