Dr. James A. Sewell, MD

CMA President, 1871
Edinburgh University (Scotland), 1833
General practice

Dr. Sewell played a key role in medical education in Canada. He was a co-founder of the Montreal School of Medicine and Surgery, and later was a professor and Dean of Medicine at Université Laval. He was also active in organized medicine, serving as the President of both the CMA and the Quebec Medical Society. Dr. Sewell died in 1883.