Dr. Michael Sullivan, MD

CMA President, 1883
Queen’s Medical College, 1858
General practice, general surgery

Dr. Sullivan, who would spend more than 27 years as a member of the Canadian Senate, was one of the first graduates of Queen’s Medical College. He would go on to serve as a professor of surgery and histology at Queen’s, where he was also a professor of anatomy. Besides his academic career, he was a leader in municipal politics, serving as mayor of Kingston, Ont., for two years. He died in 1915.
