Description

1. The award shall be known as the Canadian Medical Association Dr. William Marsden Award in Medical Ethics.

2. The award shall be presented to recognize a CMA member who has demonstrated exemplary leadership, commitment and dedication to the cause of advancing and promoting excellence in the field of medical ethics in Canada. The criteria shall be in one of the following areas:
   - demonstrated level of commitment to furthering the cause of medical ethics in Canada;
   - demonstrated leadership in enhancing ethical and professional behaviour amongst Canadian physicians;
   - demonstrated excellence in research and/or teaching initiatives in medical ethics.

3. The award shall take the form of a medal that may be worn at official functions.

Terms

1. The nominee must be a Canadian physician who is a CMA member.

2. The CMA shall be under no obligation to present the award annually; it may be awarded to more than one person in a given year.

3. Any possibility that an individual or organization could exploit winning a CMA award for personal profit or commercial advantage will be taken into consideration.

4. Any CMA member currently sitting as an elected officer, a member of the CMA Board of Directors or the Committee on Archives and Awards, is not eligible for nomination to CMA awards unless under exceptional circumstances.

5. This award will not be awarded posthumously. In the event of the demise of the nominee after being selected but before being presented with the award, it shall be presented posthumously.

6. Nominations may be submitted, accompanied by suitable documentation, by a CMA member, a provincial or territorial medical association, an affiliate or an associate society. Self-nomination is ineligible. Documentation will consist of a completed nomination form, a detailed letter of nomination accompanied by two letters of support and the nominee’s curriculum vitae. Handwritten submissions will not be accepted.

7. A nomination may be re-submitted in a subsequent year.

8. The Chair of the Committee on Archives and Awards shall receive nominations by 30 November of the year prior to the Annual Meeting at which the award is to be presented. They should be sent to the Chair, Committee on Archives and Awards, c/o Corporate Affairs Directorate, Canadian Medical Association, cherise.araujo@cma.ca.

9. The Committee on Archives and Awards shall make recommendations to the CMA Board of Directors for the award. The Board of Directors shall make the final decision.

10. The recipient of this award shall be offered the opportunity of attending the Annual General Meeting to accept the award at the expense of the CMA.
