

CMA physician sponsorship for the International Conference on Physician Health® (ICPH)

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

1. To be eligible for this opportunity, the applicant must be a resident, practising or retired CMA member* in good standing and must fully complete the application form before 11:59 pm on September 9, 2018. CMA members who are already registered for ICPH are eligible to apply for the program and if selected, will have their registration fees and travel expenses reimbursed.

**In partnership with the CMA Foundation, the CMA is also sponsoring 25 medical students to attend ICPH as Wellness Ambassadors. Interested medical students can apply for this opportunity here through August 20, 2018.*

2. All eligible applicants will be identified by an ID number. Applications will be reviewed anonymously.
3. The selection committee will determine the members to receive sponsorship, which will include 15 practising/retired physicians and 10 residents. Should only one eligible application from a particular province or territory be received, that applicant will receive sponsorship. Should multiple eligible applications from a particular province or territory be received, the applications will be reviewed and scored according to the evaluation criteria (see items 4 and 5).
4. In making their decision, the selection committee will consider the following criteria: geographic representation, diversity of practice stage, gender diversity, and responses to the following two questions:
  - » Tell us why you would benefit from attending the International Conference on Physician Health?
  - » If you're sponsored to attend the International Conference on Physician Health, tell us how you hope to contribute to the advancement of physician health and share your experiences with your peers following the conference?
5. Members of the selection committee will refer to the following Evaluation Rubric when reviewing the above questions, assigning a maximum of 5 points per question, for a total maximum of 10 points. See chart on next page for complete details.
6. Successful applicants will be notified by email. Following the confirmation of successful applicants, unsuccessful applicants will be notified by email.
