

CMA Audit and Finance Committee

The Audit and Finance Committee shall be responsible for overall financial management of the association, including financial risk management, annual budget overview and the internal audit function. The committee shall be responsible for overseeing the integrity and credibility of the association's audited financial statements. The committee shall also be responsible for liaison with the association's external auditor and overseeing the audit (15.1.2 in the CMA bylaws).

Within the scope of its mandate, the committee shall:

1. Review all financial information and assess the financial implications of significant association programs and projects and make recommendations to the Board of Directors.
2. Review issues (i.e., stipends, significant unbudgeted financial items, requests for capital from CMAH 2018, and the investment policy for reserves) as necessary.
3. Review the budget for the ensuing year and make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the budget. Monitor that the association operates within the approved budget.
4. Monitor the management of financial risks that could impact the finances, operations and fiscal reputation of the association.
5. Meet with the association's external auditor to review and approve the annual audit plan, process and results of the audit. Assess the performance of the external auditor and ensure there is open communication between the external auditors, management, and the board.
6. Advise the board and make recommendations with respect to the administration of the CMA pension plan.
7. Review the annual audited financial statements of other specific association programs or activities as delegated by the board (e.g., the CMA pension plan).

Membership:

- Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee (appointed by the Board of Directors from within the board's membership)
- Four CMA Board Directors
- One individual with accounting or financial management expertise, who may or may not be a member of the association
- Two members elected by General Council
- Chair of the Board of Directors

Expectations:

Committee members should be financially literate. Each committee member is required to review financial statements and have sufficient knowledge and understanding to make recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Term:

Appointed for a term of up to three years, renewable once. The board chair sits for the duration of their term of office.

Meetings:

Will normally meet quarterly in advance of board meetings (in person or by teleconference).
